

Mommy Must-Have
www.allisoriginals.com

Hard working mommies deserve a little luxury themselves. We found the perfect item at Alli's Originals, where a fellow Stay-at-Home Mom designs personalized sterling silver jewelry. These dazzling, little accessories are each hand stamped and made-to-order. The pieces exude subtle elegance and will be cherished as an artistic keepsake for years to come.

I certainly cherish my Alli's Originals necklace, which was made especially for me, with my son Aiden's name hand stamped into one of the charms. The accompanying charms say "love" and "joy", making this a necklace that really encapsulates my journey as a mother. In fact, aside from my engagement ring, this is the only piece of jewelry I wear every day.

Alli uses only the finest quality materials, including sterling silver, Swarovski crystals, fresh water pearls, and semi-precious stones to create her luminous jewelry. Her line includes earrings, necklaces, bracelets, charms, key tags, and even pet ID tags. To customize and purchase your own amazing accessory, visit AllisOriginals.com.
