Teacher's Pet

Teachers work so hard and I think some of the hardest working ones are the daring souls who take care of our preschool age children! I am thinking of getting a small gift for Ruby's teacher for the holidays. She deserves it. I mean I can't even imagine how she gets coats on 10 two year olds, or picks up breakfast and lunch and snacks after 10 kids and always manages to give Ruby a memorable, fun day and send her home to me not smelling like cafeteria soup. Astonishing.

I found the perfect little item for Miss C. at Alli's Originals. I think these silver necklaces are perfect for anyone and the apple is my new favorite. I love the little charms, you can add as many as you like, wear one alone, it's up to you and your mood that day when you peer into your jewelry box. For moms on the go like me you don't even have to take them off you can wash and wear all day long, sleep in them without them being too chunky and most importantly have a personalized charm close to your heart.

My pick for best teacher gift is the Teachers Love Necklace. Get it at www.allisoriginals.com
